Deputy Press Secretary To Keynote Hispanic Center Latino Tobacco Summit

Abraham Amoros, Governor Rendell's deputy press secretary, will deliver the keynote address at the Hispanic Center's 3rd Annual Latino Tobacco Summit to be held Friday, April 22, 2005 at the Wyndham Hotel on 5th & Washington Sts in Reading, PA. The event will begin at 9:00 a.m. and is open free to the public. Please RSVP.

Abraham Amoros was appointed as Senior Deputy Press to Governor Edward G. Rendell on October 13, 2003. Prior to being selected to serve in this capacity he was the Director of Communications and Press for the Pennsylvania Department of State.

Amoros has served as spokesman for state Sen. Robert J. Mellow, the Democratic Leader and has also served as a member of the York City Council. He was the first Latino ever elected in the City of York.

The event will feature a talent show to include singing, dancing, rapping and other special performances. Awards will be given. Free continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.

For details about next Fridays press opportunities or more information about the Tobacco Summit, the Hispanic Center, please contact Joe Ayala at (610) 685-1272.
